

DOCUMENTATION MUST BE WITHIN LAST 3 (THREE) YEARS

As appropriate to the disability, the documentation should include the following 6 (six) elements:

1. A diagnostic statement identifying the disability, date of the most current diagnostic evaluation, and the date of the original diagnosis.
2. A description of the diagnostic tests, methods, and/or criteria used.
3. A description of the current functional impact of the disability which includes specific test results and the examiner's narrative interpretation.
4. Treatment, medications, and/or assistive devices/services currently prescribed or in use.
5. A description of the expected progression or stability of the impact of the disability over time, particularly the next few years.
6. The credentials of the diagnosing professionals if not clear from the letterhead or other forms.

This information must be written on the letterhead of the medical professional completing the form.

Anything written on a prescription form is not acceptable.
