FTCC Student Government Association to Sponsor 9/11 Observance and Remembrance Concert with FORSCOM Brass Ensemble

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. – September 8, 2011 – Fayetteville Technical Community College's Student Government Association invites the public to participate in two 9/11 observance events at its Fayetteville campus located at 2201 Hull Road.

The first event is a 9/11 Observance Ceremony on Monday, September 12, at 8:15 a.m. at the gazebo near the Tony Rand Student Center. The second event is a 9/11 Remembrance Concert on Tuesday, September 13, at 12 noon at the front lawn of the Tony Rand Student Center featuring the brass section of the FORSCOM Army Ground Forces Band under the direction of Sgt. James Newcomb. Seating for 150 attendees will be provided for the hour-long concert, and guests may also bring a blanket and lunch to enjoy on the lawn. Both events are free and open to the public.

The Army Ground Forces Band provides world-class music in support of U.S. Army Forces Command headquartered at Fort Bragg. It serves as the musical ambassador of the American Combat soldier to the American people, instilling pride in American troops and promoting a spirit of patriotism and support for our nation's military through the performance of music at the local, regional, and national levels.

The purpose of the Student Government Association of Fayetteville Technical Community College is to promote good relationships and understanding among students, administration, faculty, staff and trustees and to foster leadership, scholarship and responsibility among students. Ms. T-Ere' Jefferson serves as the current president of the FTCC Student Government Association.

Fayetteville Technical Community College was established in 1961 and serves over 40,000 students annually by providing over 150 affordable occupational, technical, general education, college transfer, and continuing education programs to meet students' needs and desires as well as the community.
