FTCC to Host Author Zohra Sarwari for a Discussion on Islam Teachings

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. – March 22, 2010 – The Student Government Association and the Diversity and Global Education Committee of Fayetteville Technical Community College will host two events on Monday, March 29, featuring internationally known author Zohra Sarwari, who will discuss the teachings of Islam. The hour-long events are free and open to the public and will take place at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. at Cumberland Hall Auditorium.

Sarwari is a speaker, entrepreneur, publisher, and author of several books including NO! I AM NOT A TERRORIST! Sarwari seeks to inspire non-Muslims and help them understand the teachings of Islam. A portion of Sarwari's discussion will focus on the question, Have you ever stopped to think about what Islam actually has to say about terrorism?

Members of the FTCC Diversity and Global Education Committee work to promote a greater awareness of international people and cultures and promote diversity as an enrichment experience. For more information about this event, contact Gerald Daniel, FTCC Director of Student Activities, at danielg@faytechcc.edu or at (910) 678-8385.

Fayetteville Technical Community College was established in 1961 and serves over 34,000 students annually by providing 150 affordable occupational, technical, general education, college transfer, and continuing education programs to meet students' needs and desires as well as the community.
