FTCC Receives $10,000 from The Grainger Foundation

Fayetteville, NC - July 26, 2010 – Fayetteville Technical Community College (FTCC) has received a $10,000 donation from The Grainger Foundation in support of the College's mission to provide affordable technical, business, and general education programs to students within the community.

"The grant from The Grainger Foundation will be used to establish scholarships for students enrolled in technical education programs," said Dr. Larry Keen, FTCC President. "This donation will enable more students in our community to pursue a higher education. We are grateful to The Grainger Foundation for its generosity."

The donation was recommended by Tim Clevenger, branch manager of W.W. Grainger, Inc.'s Fayetteville location. Grainger has been a part of the Fayetteville business community for more than thirty (30) years as the leading broad-line supplier of maintenance, repair and operating products. "We are proud to recommend the programs offered by Fayetteville Technical Community College," said Clevenger. "Grainger understands the importance of a well-trained workforce to the future and vitality of our local community."

The Grainger Foundation, an independent, private foundation based in Lake Forest, Illinois, was established in 1949 by William W. Grainger, founder of W.W. Grainger, Inc.

Fayetteville Technical Community College was established in 1961 and serves more than 38,000 students annually by providing 150 affordable occupational, technical, general education, college transfer, and continuing education programs to meet students' needs.
