FTCC's Fine Arts Department Presents Printmaking Art Exhibition,
"Fayetteville Under Pressure," with Curator Julie Niskanen

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. – March 23, 2009 – The Fine Arts Department of Fayetteville Technical Community College is presenting the art exhibition, "Fayetteville Under Pressure," an exhibition of printmakers from the Raleigh area, with curator Julie Niskanen. The exhibition started on March 20 and will continue through April 1 from 6-8 p.m. at the Fayetteville Technical Community College Art Gallery, Room 366A of Cumberland Hall. The public is invited, and admission is free.

Sean McDaniel chairs FTCC's Fine Arts Department. Julie Niskanen is an FTCC adjunct art instructor. She received a Master of Fine Arts in printmaking from the University of South Dakota and has conducted several studies and workshops in printmaking.

Fayetteville Technical Community College was established in 1961 and serves over 34,000 students annually by providing 150 affordable vocational, technical, general education, college transfer, and continuing education programs to meet students' needs and desires as well as the community.
