FTCC to Host Youth Entrepreneurship Camp August 3-7, 2009

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. – July 29, 2009 – Fayetteville Technical Community College (FTCC) will host a Youth Entrepreneurship Camp in conjunction with North Carolina REAL Enterprises at the FTCC Center for Business & Industry (2723 Fort Bragg Road) from August 3-7, 2009.

The Youth Entrepreneurship Camp is for rising 7th, 8th, and 9th grade students interested in learning about entrepreneurship as a career option. Malinda Todd, Assistant Director with NC REAL Enterprises, will facilitate Camp events throughout the week. The Camp is designed to help youth participants identify opportunities for small business ventures and work through the business planning process by creating and implementing a business plan. Camp participants will meet successful entrepreneurs, learn how technology is used in small businesses, and learn ways to develop leadership skills. Tamara Bryant, Program Coordinator for FTCC's Small Business Center, is coordinating FTCC's involvement with the Youth Entrepreneurship Camp and can be reached at (910) 678.8462.

NC Rural Entrepreneurship through Action Learning (NC REAL) is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping bring entrepreneurship and small business creation to North Carolina by providing entrepreneurship educational programs and support to interested youth and adults.

Fayetteville Technical Community College was established in 1961 and serves over 34,000 students annually by providing 150 affordable vocational, technical, general education, college transfer, and continuing education programs to meet students' needs and desires as well as the community.
