FTCC Receives Donation from Professional Women of Fayetteville
For Endowed Scholarship

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. – February 27, 2009 – The Fayetteville Technical Community College Foundation, Inc., received a $7,000.00 donation from Professional Women of Fayetteville as part of the Professional Women of Fayetteville Endowed Scholarship fund established in 1985. The check was presented to FTCC President Dr. Larry Keen during a scheduled meeting of Professional Women of Fayetteville held on Monday, February 23, 2009. The purpose of the scholarship is to provide financial assistance to qualifying FTCC female students pursuing a career in the business field.

The Professional Women of Fayetteville is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to bring together businesswomen of diverse occupations and provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, and networking support, and to promote social growth among women in the Fayetteville area.

The Fayetteville Technical Community College Foundation, Inc., was established in 1984 to promote the development of Fayetteville Technical Community College and its programs and activities. The Foundation provides scholarships and other resources for students and promotes the academic environment of the College.

Fayetteville Technical Community College was established in 1961 and serves over 34,000 students annually by providing 150 affordable vocational, technical, general education, college transfer, and continuing education programs to meet students' needs and desires as well as the community.
